Connect with nature at Unembeza Boutique Lodge in Hoedspruit, South Africa's wildlife haven

Located between the world-renowned Blyde River Canyon and the Kruger National Park, nature-loving guests will marvel at the beauty and diversity that exists on the doorstep of this boutique bush lodge.

While staying with us, you'll experience a lifestyle many people dream of; mornings spent listening to a dawn chorus of bushveld birds as you embark on your own private game drive, afternoons spent watching giraffes from your deck as they browse from knobthorn trees in the garden, and jackals calling in the distance as you sit around a fire at night.

The estate is home to healthy populations of plains game, with regular sightings of our resident leopards. The absence of elephants, buffalos, lions and rhinos mean you can explore the reserve's wilderness area on foot, by bike or on horseback – or simply watch them from the pool deck as they saunter by.

We'll help you explore further afield too, with excursions into the Kruger National Park, visits to the Blyde River Canyon and cultural, wildlife and adventure activities that will introduce you to the area and the people at the warm heart of our community.
